Volume XV .-- Number 51.

GALLIPOLIS, OHIO, NOVEMBER 21, 1850.

Whole Number 779.

THE JOURNAL,

Is published every Thursday morning BY JAMES HARPER, In Telegraph Building, Public Square.

TERMS:

FOR CLUBS .- Four copies,

If paid within the year,

Ten " The person getting up a club of TEN will be entitled to one copy gratis, so invariably accompany the names.

ADVERTISING: One square 3 insertions, Each subsequent insertion, One square 6 months, " 1 year. To those who advertise larger a liberal reduction will be made.

The Mitten. BY ONE OF THE CHAPS WHO GOT IT. I knew a little girl, Bill, With bright and curling hair,

The prettiest in the world, Bill, And saucy as she's fair. Her eyes are like bright rubles, rare, Her voice like music, sweet-But oh! with what shall I compare

Her tiny, fairy feet. With love my heart was smitten, Bill,
Her hand I fondly sought,
Nor though I of the mitten, Bill,
But oh! I should have thought!

For though I swore to keep my vow. As true as line or plummet She placed her hand upon her nose, And said, "you can't quite come it!"

With grief my heart was riven, Bill, I humbly knelt again, And plead, as if for heaven, Bill, But oh! I plead in vain!

For while the same bright smile was

As at my first impulse, She said that I was-rather green-And wasn't nothing else.

ANOTHER FREAK OF NATURE. -On Friday last, an old lady, aged 81 that he had told her so, and had re- her security. willing to have her body opened aftheir immediate vicinity was yet ter death, for the purpose of ascerquiet, the march of foreign troops these unbidden guests, though inlet not Annette be blamed.

The liquor which was furnished to let not Annette be blamed.

Which one has a particular regard, oval shape was removed. Upon more palpable. sawing through this it was discover-sales at 2 65, delivered at the pens. Lou. Cour.

ANNETTE MURRAY.

A Revolutionary Sketch.

A beautiful spot was the homeof Annette Murray. It lay upon the banks of a small stream called 1 copy one year, paid in advance, $1 50 ed themselves into Lake Champlain. 2 00 a little distance above Whitehall .-$6 50 The banks here spread into meadows an oath— 13 00 and while the more distant hills served to diversify the landscape, they long as the club continues by his exer. the chilling winds of Spring and Au-The cash, in these cases, must tumn, so that early and late the fields of Farmer Murray were the brightest green and the rankest herone story with a sloping roof, but burned with anger at this insult to aginary dangers, but her heart beat good service in promoting the interthat Col. Smith, or this place is doing last session of the General Assembly. Incates in my possession, and by the good service in promoting the interthe capital stock of the Virginia Cenunlike many of its fellows, was pain. his sister. 6 00 ted white and the luxuriant maples to the clinging of the heart to early bottle. remembrance. One of the latter, a magnificent pink rose, might have magnif Mr. Murray's house, and sooth to losing a hair of my head?" Mr. Murray's house, and sooth to losing a half of the proper time, her furnished have been hard to tell "I have it!" exclaimed Annette, heart almost rivaling her knock at the whole State. He stated that it the said three-fifths. which was the greatest ornament, joyfully; but what she had must at the door. Shall we confess her wo- had been satisfactorily ascertained the bright face of Annette Murray, the present, remain a mystery; and man weakness? Even at this moglowing rose. One there was in the utterance of the sentence on her lips. her to throw off poor Cuba's old he described, but we cannot undernext, in the African Church, at 71 within five miles-one there was, I she was commonly called, was nev- - Imagine his astonishment. As say, who would unhesitatingly have er a black Venus, and age was far Annette, breathless, her cheeks flushgiven the maiden the preference.

can it be wondered that High Rob. as those of a wounded snake. It "How many did you say there years to secure a throughfare to the years, died at Lawrenceville, of a ceived a blushing acknowledgment Placing the smoking viands on the ed by two half-drunken sentries, and fered by the Baltimore and Ohio Railprior to her death, it was discovered But the state of the country was in Cuba's ears, Annette anxiously haps he could not help." that a tumor existed in her abdomen, such as forbid their speedy union .- awaited the termination of their reand on being asked whether she was War had broken out, and although past.

ed that the ossified covering was but in the beginning of October, which ble; and many were the brutal jokes bed were the faculties of the soldiers, Ohio valley, would force the comthin, and that within it was contain- have acquired for themselves the cracked at her expense. ed a fully developed female child! So name of Indian Summer, when an "Here, old triggle," cried one, of the house before they were discovperfectly formed was the child in all advanced party of British might "pass along those eggs; hurry, or ered. The alarm was given, but so the centre of the West was far more ative—in relation to whom we stand cally wild)—Ohl the mean, rat eyed, its parts, that no difficulty, whatev- have been seen cautiously wending they'll hatch before you get here!" quick were the Americans in their important to this city and to the er, was found in deciding upon its their way towards Whitehall; but while another, with drunken gravity movements, that ere they could resex at once; and from facts after- while yet several miles distant, after demanded the price of wool; declar- sist, the house was surrounded, an South West, though he said he was wards learned, the woman must have a hurried consultation, their advance ed his intention to procure a sample entrance forced. and all taken prisocarried that infant for forty years. | was deferred until just at night- forthwith. The circumstances which sustain when seizing a few boats which had this supposition are these: Her unfortunately been left on the banks were received with shouts of laughneice, with whom she lived up to of the river, they launched upon the ter, increased by the muttered grum- And Annette-Hugh joined the phis. Mr. Smith's address was lis- world's history of itself, with such a meeting pappy coming home, tells the time of her death, distinctly re- little stream, and succeeded, unseen, blings of Hecuba: collects that at one time her aunt in effecting a landing directly below "Bad 'nough to hab to sleep in de of the Revolutionary struggle, An- evidently gave much satisfaction."

supposed herself to be enciente, and Mr. Murray's house. The house barn, to make room, without being nette became the happy bride of Col. went so far as to make all the pre- was immediately surrounded, and a made game ob. Must a been a scar- Hugh Robertson. Their descendants liminary preparations for the expec-demand made for refreshments. It city ob rope last year, how." ted little stranger; but to the aston- may be necessary in this place to Luckily for her, her last words were portion of the community where they lowing very gratifying result of the easy but amusing, the printer has necessary in this place to lowing very gratifying result of the easy but amusing, the printer has ishment of all, the infant was never state the reason of this unwelcome drowned in the general uproar. born. About this time her husband visit. A large quantity of ammunidied, and from that period until her tion and stores of various kinds had and the sentries posted around the death, her general health was good, been collected at Whitehall, but not dwelling for the night. But two or On the London and Liverpool road, Journey Merrico and Liverpool ro and she experienced no inconven- so privately, it appeared, as to be three were thought necessary, as the 201 miles, the actual speed excluding journment, on Tuesday night, Oc- twenty-eight years! Agreeable and ed of the founder by a Turkish farience from the presence of the supunknown to a tory in the vicinity, house stood in a large meadow, renstoppages, is 371 miles per hour.—
tober 29th, the citizens of Richmond healthy must be the occupation that rier in the following manner:
There are five stoppages, the runagain convened at the Exchange has such an effect upon the system.

Turk said the horse must be bled in The above statement is one of information to a British officer, who without being seen impossible. They ning time five hours 45 minutes, and Concert Hall, on Friday night, No- A printer is literally a galley slave, the inside of the diseased leg. He simple facts. The most astonishing decided to attempt a seizure. For had just begun, with unsteady steps the average speed, including stoppa vember 1st, to take into consideration to a Brush omicer, who had just begun, with unsteady steps the average speed, including stoppa vember 1st, to take into consideration to a Brush omicer, who part of the whole story is, that a this purpose he landed as I have stahighly respectable physician, assures ted, intending with the first dawn to us that the child bore signs, of at least, attempt a surprise, and in the mean-cuba was seen crawling along to 1931 miles, the actual speed in mo-Covington. a probable recent living existence!—

time to refresh himself with the good

We shall not comment on this matthings of the "rebel Yankees," as the to refresh himself with the good to the vein a little above the fetlock to the vein a little above the ter, as we understand a full state- British indiscriminately styled the "Who goes there?" was the prompt The actual speed in motion on the meeting to order—Robert H. Galla- static enjoyment is there in his em- and a half pounds of blood. ment of the circumstances will soon be published.—Pittsburgh Gazette.

Americans. It would have been challenge of the sentinel; but an in- load and Southampton road, 80 be published.—Pittsburgh Gazette.

The actual speed in motion of the challenge of the sentinel; but an in- ployment is there in its end and a nail pounds of challenge of the sentinel; but an in- ployment which, in the round of his abbreviated years, will compensate said he had taken enough; he then about this time, and the weather was cold and suitable. The weather now is remarkably warm, and not a there appeared no way of circumventing the vigilance of the sentries.—

Heedless alike of words and deeds, the old women kept on her way, unsingle drove of hogs has yet been started. We hear of various sales in Fayette county at $2.35 and $2 the consequence of exastillation at the consequence of exastillation and the consequence of exastillations. Unin Fayette county at $2.35 and $2 have been the consequence of exastil at last she reached the barn. Unsafely shoulder, and demonstrating very last should rest the last she reached the barn. Unsafely last shoulder, and demonstrating very last should rest the last she reached the barn. Unsafely last shoulder, and demonstrating very last should rest the last she reached the barn. Unsafely last should rest the last she reached the barn. Unsafely last should rest the last should rest should rest the last should rest the last should rest should re ted for that, had there been any chance of serving his country, yet for was accomplished, she crept to the dropped an immense green fat cater. Its own ught, it is receive, for, as one good treat de-tas own ught, it is received to the sum of the tas own ught, it is received to the sum of the tas own ught, it is received to the sum of the tas own ught, it is received to the sum of the tas own ught, it is received to the tas own ught, it is received to the sum of tas own ught, it is received to the tas own ugh chance of serving his country, yet for the sake of his family he was loath needlessly to exasperate them.—

Indeedlessly to example the example the example them.

Indeedlessly to example the example them.

Indeedlessly the exampl The New York Journal of Com- needlessly to exasperate them .- among the straw, she soon found anmerce says that the introduction of He had three fine horses, which the other door, so small as to be unnothe Croton water has operated to di- officers declared their intentions of ticed on the exterior, but of sufficient minish disease, and sanguine expec-tations are entertained of remarks. left their own behind them. Annette Whatever might have been her

One of them, at last tempted by Wood Creek, whose waters discharg. the glowing cheeks of Annette, enbage. The cottage, built after a hind him. It was Annette's brother, than made amends for it. Annette Times, of the 1st inst., it will be seen bage. The cottage, but after a a strippling of nineteen, whose cheek Murry was not a girl to start at imthat Col. Smith, of this place is doing last session of the General Assembly.

which shaded and almost embowered will you, you spawn of an old rebel? tories.

We shall soon see that!" and the in Old Cuba's cloak and bonnet would, for Richmond and the State to build two-fifths are raised by others than bookstore south of the Tontine Howhich shaded and almost embowered will you, you spawn of an old rebel? tories. Province of New York was not then, furiated soldier was about to draw she feared, prove but a very inade, the railroad, so as, in a few years, to the Commonwealth, to be applied to as now, cultivated till it blooms like his sword, when the entrance of the quate protection; still it was her onas now, cultivated till it blooms like his sword, which the rose, with flowers of every hue, captain caused him to sneak away. In hope, But a very short time wast trans and travel of the Kond from his sword, which have been short time wast trans and travel of the Kond from his sword, which have been short time wast trans and travel of the Kond from his sword, which have been short time wast trans and travel of the Kond from his sword, which have been short time wast trans and travel of the Kond from his sword, which have been short time wast trans and travel of the Kond from his sword, which have been short time wast trans and travel of the Kond from his sword, which have been short time wast trans and the short time wast transfer to the short time wast trans and the short time wast transfer to the short time wast transfer but yet the early settlers had not for- To him Charles stated the cause of sufficed to bring her in sight of the tury for the completion of the Ca- counties of Monroe and Greenbrier for this bequest is that the said bookgotten their homes in Old England, the affray; but, with a caution to him first house of the village. The third nal. and here and there an occasional not to be too hot-headed, the value of these was the residence of the farman and here and there an occasional not to be too hot-headed, the value of these was the residence of the farman and there are occasional not to be too hot-headed, the value of these was the residence of the farman and there are occasional not to be too hot-headed, the value of these was the residence of the farman and there are occasional not to be too hot-headed, the value of these was the residence of the farman and there are occasional not to be too hot-headed, the value of these was the residence of the farman and there are occasional not to be too hot-headed, the value of the farman and the

A healthier or happier face than appearance was more like some an- forward almost into his arms. Annette's is seldom seen. Hair that tiquated sea monster, than what is Few words were nesessary to tell heaven, and a fairy foot, and form, motions were as slow and torturous arming himself for the fray. ertson not only thought Arnette the was in these peculiarities, as will was, Annette?"

pretty, and it was with no unskilful some fifteen or twenty minutes. At] hand that she prepared the viands for the expiration of that time, she slowher uninvited guests. The soldiers by crept through the opening, and who were on guard, lounged about carefully keeping in the shadow of al meetings of the friends of the Virture of a result of a re the yard, looking in occasionally at the barn, she stole towards the river. ginia Central Railroad have been wealth. A beautiful spot was the homethe fait, noting and inspecting stead which was the dwelling place the kitchen window and inspecting Half an hour sufficed to bring her to held at the Exchange Half, Richstead which was the dwelling place the kitchen window and inspecting Half an hour sufficed to bring her to held at the Exchange Half, Richtrace which was the dwelling place the kitchen window and inspecting the half and hour sufficed to bring her to held at the Exchange Half, Richtrace which was the dwelling place. a tree which grew on the bank, when mend, for the purpose of bringing the marks in reference to such portions Liverpool, England. The testator, a changing her bent and decrepit gait claims of the road to the attention of Mr. Wise's address, as he regarded claims of the road to the attention of Mr. Wise's address, as he regarded col. Daniels, it seems, was formerly tered the room, and throwing his back her hood, and the moonbeams the State. Those meetings have of the meeting, expressed a hope that arms round her neck, exclaimed, with fell bright upon the face of Annette been attended and addressed by the a resolution would be offered by at New Haven, Conn. In his will is Murray. Rapidly she sped along the State, also, by Murray are the prettiest rebel the stream, under the shelter of the this section of the State, also, by Council of the city, to take into conthat I have seen in this counfounded high banks, until she reached a place Mr. Shaw, the Engineer, who has, sideration the propriety of a subwere likewise a protection against country! Give me a kiss for the where the river, suddenly narrow-during the past Summer, been makcountry! Give me a kiss for the where the river, suddenly harton during the past Summer, been maked compliment?"

"I'll give you something else that of a foot bridge. Rapidly she flew begins with a k, if you don't let her across; slow as had been her former of one of the meetings held last week fered the following, which were shares in the Banks of Liverpool, alone!" exclaimed a manly voice be- progress, her present speed more which we copy from the Richmond adopted:

from adding to her charms. Her ed, and hair dishevelled, bounded curled like the tendrils of a young supposed to belong to the female sex. her tale; and while Hugh dispatched vine, blue eyes, deep as the vault of Bent with the weight of years, her his brother for assistance, he was fairest damsel he had ever seen, but soon appear, that Annette placed "There were eighteen men and disease of the bowels. A few days of her appreciation of his merits .- table, and whispering a few words Charles knew I was coming, but per-Hugh staid for one embrace, and taining the nature of that tumor, she assented.

In an hour from the time Analy expected. The farm of sufficient to intoxicate so many, was about a mile and yet, thanks to the care of Charles, nette set forth, fifteen hardy young would prove a most valuable auxiliation and we confess that among these we would prove a most valuable auxiliation and we confess that among these we would prove a most valuable auxiliation and we confess that among these we would prove a most valuable auxiliation and we confess that among these we would prove a most valuable auxiliation and we confess that among these we would prove a most valuable auxiliation and we confess that among these we would prove a most valuable auxiliation and we confess that among these we would prove a most valuable auxiliation and we confess that among these we would prove a most valuable auxiliation and we confess that among these we would prove a most valuable auxiliation and we confess that among these we would prove a most valuable auxiliation and we confess that among these we would prove a most valuable auxiliation and we confess that among these we would prove a most valuable auxiliation and we confess that among these we would prove a most valuable auxiliation and we confess that among these we would prove a most valuable auxiliation and we confess that among these we would prove a most valuable auxiliation and we confess that among these we would prove a most valuable auxiliation and we confess that among these we would prove a most valuable auxiliation and we confess that among these we would prove a most valuable auxiliation and we confess that among these we would prove a most valuable auxiliation and we confess that among these we would not be a confess that among these we would not be appeared to the confess that among the confess that a Accordingly, immediately after a half from any neighbors, but he had who mixed the different sorts to- colonists, led on by Hugh, were on ry. The railroad first constructed, of a class more generally useful, in- out raising an alarm? death, a post-mortem examination not deemed it necessary to remove getner, sufficiently potent not only to the way to her father's. Instead of he took it for granted that it would be took it for granted that the granted that it would be took it for granted that it would was held, and a bony substance of an his family until the danger should be render them merry, but also to be taking the road by which Annette deliver its heavy trade to the canal fortunate, than that of Printers -- ably cute style) -- she didn't suffer wilder their intellects. Hecuba came, they marched silently along at Covington, and ultimately the ne-It was one of those delicious days was ordered to wait upon the ta- the customary road, and so benum- cessities of the sociation with them we have learned back again, as if she liked it better that they reached within thirty yards pletion of the water communication. -nervous, jovial, thoughtful, witty, lasses dip. ners. The next day the stores and railroad. He asserted that a railroad ta-daguerreotyping, as it were, the

are still a numerous and respectable of the 4th inst., containing the fol. benefactors, that the toil is not only dwell.

From the Kanawha Republican. tientral Raftrand.

to a quick and active step, she threw of the citizens of Richmond, and of not exactly applicable to the objects fast at the thought of the risk she ran, ests of the road. He has almost tral Railroad was increased the sum and sixty two pounds currency. "You'll give me something else, should she meet any of the traitor succeeded in convincing the editor of $700,000, three fifths of which The name of the aloresaid legates, honey suckle or rose-bush testified iant captain swaggered back to his ther of Hugh Robertson. The hour meeting, Mr. Shaw, the Engineer of subscription of $150,000 from the meduring a sickness of several days. for retiring in those primitive times, the Central Company, made an ad- Board of Public Works, which said He was a married man, a member tension we think he estimated at the City Council to subscribe in besome seven millions.

Mr. Benjamin H. Smith, of Kanation, was next called out, and he the counties west of the mountains. made a very interesting and forcible ry of the efforts made by the people of his section for a long period of Eastern markets, told how they had been denied the privilege of a contwo officers, and the house is watch- nection with Baltimore when profbrought to despair of obtaining that > have received the Richmond Times that they think anything about their terests of the Central Railroad. | news.

cluding stoppages, 43 miles per, hour, resumed the Chair, and called the the lead from his system? What ec- joint, and took from it about three of Gen. Chapman's address. Mr. W. for the consumptive, nor put bread rubbed dry, and then walked about An Indian woman, 97 years old, stated that he had come to be in- into the mouths of the printer and until cool, and covered with blanpassed through Albany the other day. formed, not with any idea whatever his family, when temporarily or per-She belonged to one of the tribes of of making a speech. He had no sta mond and Virginia in becoming aroused to their own interest. He been seen adorning the front of these dastardly red-coats, without up. With a joyful exclamation she siderations to show the importance mond ought to subscribe, at the more. flew up the steps, the beating of her of the railroad to Richmond and to proper time, her full proportion of peeping through the casement or the the entrance of a soldier stopped the ment, a thought of Hugh impelled by several practicable routes. These mond to convene on Tuesday night neighborhood—and when I speak of There had resided in the family, hood. In an instant, although it take to repeat his description from o'clock, to take into consideration in this my last will and testatement. neighborhood—and when I speak of relief had resident in the seemed to her an age, the door was memory. The total cost of the exthe propriety of calling directly upon half of the city the sum necessary to complete the road, with the aid of wha, a member of the State Conven- private subscriptions already made in

On motion the meeting adjourned speech. He recapitulated the histo- over to Tuesday, as indicated by Mr. Lyons' resolution.

HORACE L. KENT, Chair. ROBT. H. GALLAHER, Sec'y.

From the Boston Waverly Magazine. Printers.

· · A true Republican looks if the parting kiss was less reluctant- He spoke with great emphasis of his by the sweat of their brow; but of locke? the canal, and argued that the rail. which one has a particular regard, wasn't he though? Since the above was in type we advised world conceive, if indeed for something and a trifle over. several meetings to consider the in- such a fine chance to get the first singular circumstance related by a

One Good Turn Deserves An- In response to the call, Gen. Chap- We really think that if there is There may be no novelty in this other .- A favorable magpie had been man of Monroe, took the stand and anything which an age of intelli- but it certainly astonished me to find accustomed to receive dainty bits adressed the meeting at length, illus- gence like this has to reproach itself that opening two veins in the same from the mouth of its mistress. The trating the vast importance to Rich- with, it is its neglect of the printers, limb stopped both from bleeding; other day it perched as usual on her mond of the extension of the Central in view of their scanty rewards, and however, such is the fact, for I witble results from the exclusion of some species of epidemics, and the mitigation of all.

Whatever might have been ner the far off Western wilds, and is replicable to the particular duties of this unwelcome call for hospitality. Annette was as useful as mained in a listening attitude for old a savage dame.

She belonged to one of the tribes of the fires o

A Windfall for Somebody .- We

'And now having no other near England, and Dumfries, Soutland,

'Contcil.-If the above bequest cannot be complied with, for lack of proof, or by reason of the death of the legatee, I hereby direct my executors to divide the shares equally between the five parties first named,

HOW A WIFE WAS MADE JEALOUS. Boy-Ma, isn't Miss Lovelocke a ice lady? isn't she though?

MOTHER-Yes, love, she is indeed a very fine ladv. B .- And don't lather think a heap of her? don't he though? M .- Yes father as well as myself. hinks very highly of Miss Love-

B .- That's what I thought to-day when I seen him hugging and kissing her in the front parlor.

M., (springing to her feet with all the agility of having pressed her foot with sympathetic interest upon all on a hot smoothing iron)-Your faobject through the aid of the State. classes of men who earn their bread ther hugging and kissing Miss Love-

B. [in the highest glee]-My eyel

M. (wildly hysterical and hysteriscandalous, hawdacious huzzy! I'll (Falls down fainting-tears her hair, and kicks her heels on the car-Poor as these jokes were, they ammunition were conveyed to Fort from Richmond to St. Louis would passing scenes of life's panorama, pet, crying aloud for a divorce, while be shorter than a railroad to Mem. sending forth into the world the her son runs off for a doctor, and Continental army, and at the close tened to with much attention, and generally accurate minuteness, such him en pussant, that he, his hopeful Albany Dutchman.

farmers-The late Commodore Por-Speed of the British Railroads .- VIRGINIA CENTRAL RAILROAD -- AD- Favored racel the average dura- ter, when Envoy of the United States tion the extension of the Virginia labors. What amount of wages will steady-then took up the left leg and On the London and Exeter road, Central Railroad from Staunton to compensate him for the loss of prop- crossing it over the right, gave it to

Hogs—Prices—Hog killing has been retarded this season, and from present indications it will be three weeks before the season commences. Last year operations commenced about this time, and the weather was about this time, and the weather was about this time, and the weather was about the present posture of all distinct mittering was the reply.—In response to the present posture of all distinct mittering was the reply.—In response to the present posture of all distinct mittering was the reply.—In response to the darks about the present posture of all distinct mittering was the reply.—In response to the call, Gen. Chap
The Chairman, explained the object of which the citizens had been to fire, when his comrade exclaim-present indications it will be three darks about the looks upon the fair vista of a striking his lancet into a vein whom the meeting would expect addresses.

The Chairman, explained the object of the underly of the presence of some gentlemen from whom the meeting would expect addresses.

The Chairman, explained the object of the underly of the presence of some gentlemen from whom the meeting would expect addresses.

The Chairman, explained the object of the underly of the presence of some gentlemen from whom the meeting would expect addresses.

The Chairman, explained the object of the looks upon the fair vista of a striking his lancet into a vein whom the meeting would expect addresses.

The Chairman, explained the object of the looks upon the fair vista of a striking his lancet into a vein whom the meeting would expect addresses.

The Chairman, explained the object of the looks upon the fair vista of a striking his lancet into a vein whom the meeting would expect addresses.

The Chairman of the presence of some gentlemen from whom the fair vista of a striking his lancet into a vein whom the meeting would expect addresses.

The Chairman of the presence of some gentlemen from whom the fair vista of the looks upon the fair vista of the looks upon the fair vista of the looks upon the fair vista of the